Two Months To Go!

The countdown is on until Furnal Equinox 2012! in less than two months, we'll all be gathering at the Doubletree for opening ceremonies... so now's the time to start planning for your visit in March!

You can get your plans underway today by registering for the convention on our Registration page. Member registrations are currently $40 Canadian, and sponsorships—including a T-shirt and access to the Wolf's Den hospitality suite—are $70. Preregistration will close March 4, after which you'll have to line up at the door... so you'll want to get signed up soon.

Also, if you haven't booked your hotel room for FE 2012 yet, our room block will close on February 15. Room rates start at just $109 a night... and you get free chocolate chip cookies when you check into your room! Give the hotel a call, or you can book your room online... and don't be afraid to look around, including on our forums, for room shares!

Get Printed In Our Conbook

Time is running out to submit your artwork, stories and poetry for the FE 2012 conbook... if you want to see them published, we need them by February 15!

Remember, the theme of "Infurnally Yours" invokes passion and love breaking barriers, whether between heaven and hell, good and evil, or the living and the departed... think Dante's Inferno, or Orpheus in the underworld. The full standards for submissions are available on the conbook page, so check them out and then use the form on that page to send us your work.

Attention Potential Panelists!

If you want to lead a discussion or meet with people of similar mind at FE, we want to hear from you! We're looking for people to run events and panels at the con, but we need a response by February 15.

We welcome panels on any topic of interest to our membership: furry artwork, writing techniques, fursuit performance, or a gathering of those with similar interest or characters (canines, rodents, "greymuzzles", and so on). Visit our Events page and send us your panel idea!

Volunteer Call

Want to help FE happen as smoothly as it has in prior years? We need people to step up and let us know they're interested in making it happen!

No experience is necessary to be a volunteer at Furnal Equinox, and for those who put in the time, we have plenty of perks available. Simply visit our Volunteer page to get an idea of what our needs are, and fill out the form so we can get in contact with you!

Planning to Fursuit?

We've got plenty of programming on tap for fursuiters at FE this year, including an improv show and (new this year) Fursuit Charades! The Fursuit Games also be will be returning for 2012—take note though that you'll have to sign up in advance!

And of course, if you're wanting to show off your suit, you'll want to make sure you show up on Saturday for the fursuit parade, and take some time for fursuit photography at FirestormSix's Dealers Den table.

Find out more about what's being planned for fursuit programming from Sprocket, and give him your feedback, on our forums!
